

111. (1) They do not show contact inhibition. Contact inhibition is a property of normal cells in which dividing cells when in contact with other cells are inhibited for their uncontrolled growth.
112. (4)(a) is morphine
(b) is cannabinoid molecule
113. (2)
114. (1)
115. (3)
116. (4) The corrected statements are:
(1) Barbiturates depresses brain activity and produce feeling of calmness, relaxation.
(3) Opium suppresses brain function and produce temporary euphoria.
(4) Morphine relieve pain and called analgesic.
117. (2)
118. (2) Carcinoma refers to malignant tumours of epithelial tissue derived from ectoderm.
119. (3) Thymus provides an inductive environment for development of T-cells. Thymus begins atrophy (partial or complete wasting away of a part of the body) with age which slows down the power of defence against the invasion of germs.
120. (4) LSD shows hallucinogenic properties and is obtained from Claviceps purpurea (fruiting body of fungus).